The Anti-Social Behaviour Team are part of Nottingham City Council, who are the data controllers for the personal data that we process about you. When we process personal data relating to you, we will only do so when it is necessary and where we have a lawful reason to do so.

We will use the information provided by you to undertake statutory duties to prevent and reduce crime and disorder, substance misuse, anti-social behaviour, environmental crime and fraud.

The legislation that contains the powers and functions that require us to process your personal data can be found here <http://documents.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/download/5939>

When we process your personal data, we will comply with data protection legislation and enable you to exercise your rights contained within the legislation.

Civil Investigations

The basis under which the Council uses personal data for this purpose is that this is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the Council or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Council.

The information provided by you may include the following special categories of personal data

- Race or Ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Religious beliefs
- Trade Union membership
- Physical or mental health
- Sex life or sexual orientation
- Genetic and biometric data

Information in these categories is used by the Council on the basis that such use is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, and in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018

The information provided by you may also include criminal data. The basis on which this information is processed is for statutory reasons of substantial public interest.

Criminal Investigations

The basis under which the Council uses personal data for this purpose is that this is necessary for law enforcement purposes.

Part 3 of the Data protection Act 2018 applies to processing personal data for 'law enforcement purposes'. When processing personal data for 'law enforcement purposes', the Council are acting as a 'Competent Authority' and have law enforcement powers given to us within statute.

It covers processing for the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences, or the execution of criminal penalties, including the safeguarding against and the prevention of threats to public security.

In practice, the lawful basis would either be necessary for the performance of a task carried out for law enforcement purposes by Nottingham city council, or based on consent. There may be circumstances where we obtain consent from the individual whose data we are processing, although this will only be appropriate in certain circumstances in the context of law enforcement.

The information provided by you may include the following sensitive personal data

- Race or Ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Religious beliefs
- Trade Union membership
- Physical or mental health
- Sex life or sexual orientation
- Genetic and biometric data

In order to process this type of data Nottingham City Council must be able to demonstrate that the processing is strictly necessary and satisfy one of the conditions in Schedule 8 or is based on consent.

The conditions for sensitive processing in Schedule 8 of the Act are:

- necessary for judicial and statutory purposes –
- for reasons of substantial public interest;
- necessary for the administration of justice;
- necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or another individual;
- personal data already in the public domain (manifestly made public);
- necessary for legal claims;
- necessary for the purpose of preventing fraud; and
- necessary for archiving, research or statistical purposes

The ASB team will mainly process sensitive information for reasons of substantial public interest

Do you need to provide the information?

You are obliged by statute to provide some of the information that is specified here.

How long will NCC retain the data for?

The information that you have provided will be kept for 6 years.

Can the information be used for any other purpose?

The information provided by you may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/>

The information will only be used for another purpose where it is lawful to do so.
