March 2024

The Domestic Waste and Recycling Service are part of Nottingham City Council, who are the data controllers for the personal data (or personal information) that we process about you. When we process personal information relating to you, we will only do so when it is necessary and where we have a lawful reason to do so.

We will use the information provided by you for a number of reasons, depending on the service or reasons for interacting with you. This includes:

- To provide a Garden Waste subscription service to residents in the city area
- To provide citizens in receipt of Council Tax Support with one discounted Garden Waste collection per financial year (1 April to 31 March)

When we process your personal information, we will comply with data protection legislation and enable you to exercise your rights contained within the legislation.

What personal information will the Council process?

The information that we collect about you to fulfil the purposes, objectives, or to deliver the services outlined above relates to your:

- Name, address details, contact information and Council Tax reference number or other evidence of receipt of Council Tax Support.

Lawful basis for processing

The basis under which we use your personal information for these purposes is that you have given consent to the processing of your personal data for the specific purpose.

- UK General Data Protection Regulation
- Data Protection Act 2018
- Human Rights Act 1998
- The Controlled Waste (England and Wales) Regulations 2012

Will my information be shared with other organisations or used for other purposes?

The Council will only share your personal information with other departments within the Council and with other organisations when it is necessary to provide the services to you, and when we have a lawful reason to do so. The Council may also share your information when we are obliged to by law.

In relation to this service, the Council will share your address information with a data processor who will be another organisation.

The information provided by you may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. This may include sharing your information across the Council, or with external organisations. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/>

The information will only be used for another purpose where it is lawful to do so.

Do I have to provide the information?

You are not obliged by statute to provide some of the information that is specified here.

How long will the Council retain the data for?

The information that you have provided will be kept for the duration of the current financial year, which is to say a period of up to 12 months from 1 April to 31 March.

The Council publish an Information Asset Register (IAR), this will outline the retention periods for the personal data we process. You can find this IAR on our website <https://geoserver.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/information-asset-register/>
