Will my information be shared with other organisations or used for other purposes?

The Council will only share your personal information with other departments within the Council, and with other organisations when it is necessary to provide the services to you, and when we have a lawful reason to do so. The Council may also share your information when we are obliged to by law.

In relation to this service, the Council may share your personal information with:

- Suppliers and partners

The information may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. This may include sharing your information across the Council, or with external organisations. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/>

The information will only be used for another purpose where it is lawful to do so.

Do I have to provide the information?

You are not obliged by statute or contract to provide the information that is specified here. However, if we were not able to process your personal data we may not be able to offer a service.

How long will the Council retain the data for?

The information that you have provided will be kept for the period stated in our Information Asset Register.

The Council publish an Information Asset Register (IAR), this will outline the retention periods for the personal data we process. You can find this IAR on our website: <https://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/your-council/about-the-council/access-to-information/information-request/>. You can find the IAR at the bottom of the website under the banner “Nottingham City Council’s Information Asset Register”.
